CONGRESSIONAL DELEGATION
UNITED STATES SENATOR

SENATOR PATRICK LEAHY
United States Senator - Democrat, Vermont

Patrick Leahy of Middlesex was elected to the United States Senate (1974) and remains the only Democrat – and, when elected at 34, the youngest person – elected to this office from Vermont. In December 2008, Leahy became the longest serving senator from Vermont. Leahy was born in Montpelier and grew up near the Statehouse. He graduated from Saint Michael's College (1961) and received his Juris Doctoris from Georgetown University Law Center (1964). He served eight years as State's Attorney in Chittenden County and was selected (1974) as one of three outstanding prosecutors in the United States. In his sixth term, Leahy is the fourth most senior member of the Senate, a senior member of the Agriculture and Appropriations Committees, and Chairman of both the Judiciary Committee and the State and Foreign Operations Appropriations Subcommittee. He is co-chair of the Senate National Guard Caucus and co-chair of the Congressional Internet Caucus. He co-authored the Northeast Interstate Dairy and the Milk Income Loss Compensation program and is the father of the national organic standards and a variety of other farm, conservation and environmental initiatives, including efforts to protect Lake Champlain. He wrote the charter for the first-responder grant program (2001) and the Innocence Protection Act (enacted 2004). He wrote the first law in the world banning the export of landmines, and the Leahy War Victim's Fund is used worldwide to help landmine victims. Leahy and his wife, Marcelle Pomerleau Leahy, native of Newport, Vt., live on a tree farm in Middlesex and have five grandchildren. Post Office Address: 199 Main Street, Burlington, VT, 05401, or United States Senate, Washington, DC, 20510.

CONGRESSIONAL DELEGATION
UNITED STATES SENATOR

SENATOR BERNARD SANDERS
United States Senator - Independent, Vermont

Bernard Sanders of Burlington, Chittenden County, was born in Brooklyn, New York, on September 8, 1941. Sanders was elected to the United States Senate in 2006 and served in the United States House from 1991-2006. He is the longest-serving Independent in the history of the House of Representatives. Before his election to Congress, Sanders served as Mayor of Burlington (1981-1989). His accomplishments as Mayor included building affordable housing, revitalizing the City's waterfront and downtown and supporting the arts. He was chosen as one of the twenty best mayors in the country by U.S. News and World Report. In the Senate, he serves on the Energy and Natural Resources; Environment and Public Works; Health, Education, Labor and Pensions; Veterans' Affairs; and Budget Committees. He is a supporter of progressive tax reform, national health care, affordable housing, family farms, a higher minimum wage, workers rights and a national energy policy emphasizing conservation. He is the founder and former chair of the House Progressive Caucus, which has grown to over 50 members. He is married to Jane O'Meara Sanders, and they have 4 children. Before being elected mayor he worked as a writer, documentary producer, and Director of the American People's History Society. Vermont Phone Number 800-339-9834 or 1-802-862-0697. Vermont Fax (802) 860-6370. Post office address: One Church Street, 2nd Floor, Burlington, VT, 05401-4417.

CONGRESSIONAL DELEGATION REPRESENTATIVE TO CONGRESS

REPRESENTATIVE PETER WELCH
United States Representative to Congress - Democrat, Vermont

Peter Welch currently serves as Vermont's Democratic member to the United States House of Representatives.

Welch was born in Springfield, Massachusetts in 1947 into a family of six children. He attended Holy Name Grammar School and Cathedral High School. After graduating from Holy Cross College in 1969, he was selected to be in the first class of Robert F. Kennedy Fellows. This honor allowed him to continue the civil rights work he began in college, helping families in Chicago overcome discriminatory housing policies. Welch graduated from the University of California Berkeley, Boalt Hall in 1973.

Settling in Vermont, Welch worked as a public defender and then started the firm of Welch, Graham & Manby, of which he served as partner.

In 1980, Welch was elected to represent Windsor County in the State Senate. In 1985 he was unanimously elected by his colleagues to serve as President Pro Tem of the Vermont Senate, becoming the first Democrat to hold this leadership position in state history. He served as President Pro Tem from 1985 to 1988. Welch returned to the Senate in 2001 and his colleagues again unanimously elected him President Pro Tem in 2003. He served as President Pro Tem from 2003 to 2006.

Welch was elected to the US House of Representatives in 2006. He serves on the House Committees on Energy and Commerce, Oversight and Government Reform, and Standards of Official Conduct. He is married to Vermont state representative Margaret Cheney.

GOVERNOR

GOVERNOR PETER SHUMLIN

Peter Shumlin began his career in public service in Putney almost 30 years ago. In 1980 at the age of 24 he was elected to serve on the town's select board. In 1990 Montpelier came calling when Governor Madeleine Kunin appointed Peter to fill an empty seat in the Vermont House of Representatives. After 3 years in the House he ran for one of Windham County's two Senate seats. He was elected in 1992 and would represent Windham County for the next 10 years. During his second term he was elected Democratic leader and in 1997 his colleagues chose him to serve as the President pro-tempore, the chamber's top leadership post.

Peter ran unsuccessfully for lieutenant governor in 2002. After a 4 year absence he returned to the Senate in 2006 where he was again selected to serve as the President pro-tempore. In November of 2010 he was elected Governor of Vermont.

During his 13 years in the Senate Peter has served on the Rules Committee, the Finance Committee, the Transportation Committee and the Appropriations Committee.

Peter, 53, is the father of two daughters Olivia, 19, and Rebecca, 17. In his free time he enjoys running, hiking and cross country skiing. He likes to fish, hunt and garden and can sometimes be found spreading manure and cutting hay at the dairy farm where he is a partner.

LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR

LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR PHIL SCOTT

Phil Scott was born in Barre, Vermont in 1958 and is currently a resident of Berlin. He graduated from Spaulding High School in 1976 and the University of Vermont in 1980 with a B.S. in Industrial Education. Phil has two daughters, Erica and Rachael, and one spoiled Golden Retriever, Tucker.

Phil's public service career began in 2000, when he was elected to the Vermont Senate from Washington County. He served six terms in the Senate, sitting on the Natural Resources and Transportation Committees, and serving as Chair of the Institutions Committee. He was elected Vermont's Lt. Governor in 2010.

Outside of the State House, Phil is a small business owner, community leader, and well-known stock car driver. He is co-owner of DuBois Construction in Middlesex, having worked his way up from summer laborer to company owner, along with Don DuBois. His real-world construction experience has been invaluable to the work faced in the Legislature.

In 2004, Phil founded the Wheels for Warmth program, in which Vermonters donate tires they no longer need. The tires that meet state inspection standards are offered for resale at affordable prices the last weekend in October, with all proceeds benefiting heating fuel assistance programs. The tires that are not inspectable are recycled.

During the summer, you can find Phil at Barre's Thunder Road International Speedbowl, where he has raced the #14 car since 1992. To date, Phil has the most career wins as a Late Model driver at Thunder Road.

AUDITOR OF ACCOUNTS

AUDITOR OF ACCOUNTS THOMAS M. SALMON

Thomas M. Salmon, CPA of St. Johnsbury, Caledonia County, was born in Bellows Falls, VT on July 28, 1963. Born and raised in Bellows Falls, VT, he attended Bellows Falls Public Schools and worked at the St. Johnsbury Trucking Company at the Bellows Falls Loading Dock. He graduated from Boston College with a Bachelors of Science in Accounting and began his accounting career in auditing with the international CPA firm Coopers and Lybrand. He has been a Certified Public Accountant since 1993 and is a member of the Vermont Society of CPAs, the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants, and the Certified Fraud Examiners Association. He is a former member of the Rockingham Selectboard. He serves in the U.S. Navy Reserves (Seabess). He and his wife, Leslie, have four children.

I am honored to serve as your Vermont State Auditor. I decided to run for public office after experiencing, firsthand, the aftermath of Hurricane Katrina as a Naval Reservist which brought home the need for everyone to contribute what they can to their communities. My goal in my second term is to continue to increase financial communication statewide by transforming the office into a true performance audit resource for the state. From State Street to Main Street to School Street, confusion is costing us Vermonters millions. We can do better (Team Vermont). I am grateful for my experience in a variety of sectors both private and public (accounting, auditing, social service, education, real estate, job training, transportation and sales) which help me to better serve this great state of Vermont

Office phone: 802-828-2281. PO Address: 132 State St., Drawer 33, Montpelier, VT 05633-5101.

VICKI STRONG, of Albany VT, has lived a life of service to her community as a Pastor's wife for 28 years and as a Weight-Watchers Leader for 14 years. She has enjoyed every area of ministry, from teaching and working with children, to organizing many forms of community outreach to people of all ages. She met her husband, Nate Strong, in Craftsbury Common, VT, while attending Sterling College in 1975. She then went on to attend Le-Tourneau University to study Bible and Missions, and at that time married Nate on 7/7/77. Together they enjoyed raising three children, home-schooled them, and worked in church ministry together. All three children went on to college, and their middle child, Jesse, joined the Marine Corps at the age of 19. Jesse graduated from Marine Corps boot camp two weeks before September 11, 2001, and after his college graduation from Liberty University in Lynchburg, VA was activated to go to Iraq. Sadly, on January 26, 2005, Jesse, was killed in action while on a night mission several days before the first free Iraqi election. In grieving her deep loss, Vicki has sought to honor her son's sacrifice for freedom, and she is proud of his service for our country. In the years since losing her son, many opportunities have opened up for Vicki, and running for state office as a Representative became a new form of service to her community.
