MIKE MROWICKI of Putney, Windham County- was born September 27, 1954 in Jersey City, N.J. He is a Democrat -going back to all four grandparents-all Polish immigrants. That experience helped instill the legacy of hope, caring and giving back to community further nurtured by his parents and that has continued in Mike. Mike moved to Putney, in Vermont's beautiful "South-East Kingdom" in 1981, where both daughters, Grace('81) and Maria('84) were born and raised. His daughters inspired Mike to move from working in nurseries with plants, to working in nurseries with children. Several years as a stay-at home Dad evolved into work as a child care professional, parent educator and youth and family service worker. In 1990, Mike was recognized by the Windham Child Care Association with their initial Child Care Commitment Award. He is currently Director of Putney Family Services. Other community work includes the Putney Recreation League Board, The Brattleboro Area Community Land Trust and the Men's Resource Collaborative. Along with that he's also active in the Putney Quaker Meeting and was Clerk of the Meeting from 2003 to 2006. An avocation for Mike is music, and he's released 3 albums of original music. Mike is also an avid outdoor enthusiast and enjoys running, quiet water kayaking and cross-country skiing-as well as "geezer basketball".
